Attention, Farmers!

Having taken charge of the business, that has in the past been known as Haggard & Speaks, I will endeavor to make my establishment one of the best in Central Kentucky. I cordially invite all the farmers in Bourbon and adjoining counties to give me a call. I have the best makes of all modern Farm Implements—Buggies, Wagons—in fact, everything that is used on a farm. I also make a specialty of putting Rubber Tire on Buggies.

Yours for honest dealing,

J. H. HAGGARD.

FOXY QUILLER.

—DeKoven and Smith's successful comic opera, "Foxy Quiller," will be seen Saturday night. In "Foxy Quiller" Mr. Smith has made his comedy a conspicuous quality. The plot is ingenious and the characters well removed from the common place. In devising situations which give place for a love duet or a comic solo, Mr. Smith has a facility which only constant study could attain, and "Foxy Quiller" has proven one of those rarities in comic operas, one with a consistent story. The cast includes the prominent comedian, Richard Golden, Miss Rosemary Glossy, who has just returned to this country fresh from a series of triumphs abroad and Adolph Zink, one of the original lilliputians, and a number of others whose names have been identified with successful comic opera productions.

What promises to be the greatest attempt in the era of realism will be seen at the Grand to-night in the melodrama of Lincoln J. Carter's "Fast Mail." The play is famous throughout the country for the completeness and magnitude of its mechanical effects. The production is under the personal supervision of its author, Lincoln J. Carter. Special scenery is carried for the ten complete sets to be used in the play. In the second act a steamboat is shown with the boiler room and intricate machinery, and the glowing furnaces. The boat is blown up by a tremendous explosion, and the wreck is seen going down in mid river. The great railway scene is another of the unprecedented achievements of their performance in the direction of realism. A freight train of fourteen cars is run across the stage with an illuminated caboose and a practical locomotive. The fireman and engineer are seen at their respective stations, which looks like reality itself. A mail train comes speeding by and catches the mail pouch just as every one has seen it done many times.

In the last act Niagara Falls is shown in all its natural beauty. The soft moonlight adds to the effect, and the scene needs only the addition of the suspension bridge to complete effect of reality.

Prices—15, 25, 50 and 75 cents.

MILLERSBURG.

T. D. Judy and G. W. Bryau are some better.

Rev. J. W. Crates' father, age 74, died last week at London, England.

Frank Collier has moved to the Ford Brent farm, near Tarr's Station.

Another big lot of wall paper this week. Prices way down. JOE W. MOCK.

Have you seen those bargains in my windows? Those prices for ten days only. JOE W. MOCK.

W. H. Hardie and Miss Eliza Smith were married Thursday at the home of the bride's father, J. W. Smith, near Hooktown.

Don't forget the Pitman Concert Co., to-night at the Opera House. It is one of the best on the road and deserves a liberal patronage.

There are a number of cases of la grippe here, Mrs. Jeff and Letton Vimont, Miss Lizzie-Bettie Vimont, Mrs. Lou Conway, and a number at M. F. C.

Mrs. Ida Kearns and five children left Tuesday to visit relatives in Cynthia. She expects to go to Masonic Home at Louisville. Miss Louise, the oldest, will remain at M. F. C.

Reynolds, son of Joseph B. Purnell, formerly of this place, won the appointment of naval cadet in a competitive examination in Congressman Champ Clark's Missouri district. He will have his final examination at Annapolis in May.

Spencer Best, formerly of the staff of the Morning Herald, at Lexington, and one of the most popular of newspaper men, is holding a position on the Salt Lake City Herald, at Salt Lake City, Utah. Mr. Best left Lexington about a year ago, taking his course toward the great and bounding west. He said Lexington was entirely too small for him and that he wanted to get out where he could grow fat and talk back. Mr. Best is doing admirably on the western paper, has the confidence and esteem of the publication and has so many friends he can't find use for them all. All who know Spencer Best here are proud of him and gratified at the story of his success. Mr. Best was reared in Millersburg.

SEEDS.—Garden seed of all kinds; seed potatoes.
